Dear Sir:

Greetings from TORN TICKET STAGE PRODUCTIONS!

14030194

For more than a decade, TORN TICKET STAGE PRODUCTIONS is a name that has been synonymous with top class stage plays. In fact, our high quality production values have earned us prestige in the theater industry.

Every stage play we offer is an excellent combination of high quality educational entertainment value and mind-blowing theater production aesthetic which are products of a collaborative effort among seasoned theaterophiles in the local scene today.

Flavored with deep social values that respond to the needs of students, our take on Filipino Classics like IBONG ADARNA, FLORANTE AT LAURA, NOLI ME TANGERE, and EL FILIBUSTERISMO, our original plays HISTORYA and TSINELAS as well as English Classic like PARIS AND HELEN are guaranteed to quench every students' hunger for high quality entertainment fortified with valuable wisdoms of life. After all, this particular medium has been proven a far more effective didactic approach compared to conventional learning methods. Here is a brief description and schedule of our superb stage productions for the coming School Year 2014-2015:

A. CLASSIC FILIPINO PLAYS :

1. IBONG ADARNA - Aug. 02, 03, 09, 2014 @ SM North Edsa Cinema 8

Three brothers on a quest to find a mystical bird whose enchanting voice is the only cure to save their father, the king, from a deadly ailment. Find out how the youngest sibling's golden heart and pure intention will lead him to the path of victory and eventually the way to save his father's life.

2. FLORANTE AT LAURA - Aug. 10, 16, 17, 2014 @ SM North Edsa Cinema 8

How far can you go to fight for your one true love? This epic story of envy, hatred, greed, and love will show you how. Set amidst the backdrop of two warring majestic kingdoms, this classic love story teaches us that love transcends boundaries, race, and creed.

3. NOLI ME TANGERE - Aug. 21, 23, 24, 2014 @ SM North Edsa Cinema 8

The first book of the National Hero which diagnoses the disease of a sick society under the lethal fangs of Spanish colonialism. The play paints a vivid picture of the Philippine society during Rizal's time. Told with humor, acid satire, and surgical wit, this drama imbibes a strong sense of Nationalism and pride among students.

4. EL FILIBUSTERISMO - Aug. 25, 30, 31, 2014 @ SM North Edsa Cinema 8

After more than a century, this incendiary novel, which is a sequel to Noli Me Tangere has never lost its potency to instigate a burning sense of patriotism and nationalism among many generations of readers. This stage play version captures this spirit with a touch of drama, comedic wit, and in-your-face entertainment value. Rest assured, El Filibusterismo will keep the flame for love of country ablaze.

B. ORIGINAL HISTORICAL FILIPINO PLAY (for Elementary / High School / College students)

5. HISTORYA - Oct. 04, 05, 2014 @ SM North Edsa Cinema 8

Historya is an action-packed tale that will take you on a rollercoaster ride through Philippine history with protagonist Journey de Leon as our unlikely tour guide. Smart-alecky student Journey sees no point in studying the past yet his point of view will eventually change after accidentally finding a magical wristwatch that gives him the ability to time travel. Historya shows the value of learning from the lessons of history and how this can guide us on our quest as a nation.

C. CLASSIC ENGLISH PLAY (for High School / College students)

6. PARIS AND HELEN - Nov. 15, 16, 2014 @ SM North Edsa Cinema 8

Homer's Iliad comes to life as the Prince of Troy and the Queen of Sparta engages in a forbidden love affair which will create conflicts among Achaian kings and eventually lead to the legendary fall of Troy. With a powerhouse cast of characters such as Menelaus, Agamemnon, Hector and Achilles among many others, every scene of this classic Greek tale will definitely grab you by the throat.

D. ORIGINAL MODERN FILIPINO PLAY (for Elementary / High School / College students)

7. TSINELAS - Dec. 06, 07, 2014 @ SM North Edsa Cinema 8

Witness how a poor student from the slums embark on a journey to success with nothing but his determination, hard work, love of education, and yes, his old trusty battered slippers. Aside from being a story of hope, this play will definitely stir the students' sense of nationalism, self-determination, hardwork, and love of education.

Our elaborate stage productions, which also can be shown outside the scheduled dates at other selected SM Cinema branches or at any venue of your preference, will serve as an indispensable supplement to existing learning tools in the present Elementary, High School, and College curriculum. With TORN TICKET STAGE PRODUCTIONS, students will get nothing less than the ultimate educational theater experience.

In this regard, we would like to be your partners in advocating our cause by requesting from your good office to include in your advisories our stage plays for the coming School Year 2014-2015. Through this advisory, as well as the cooperation of all the Superintendents, Supervisors, Principals, School Heads and Teachers, we can help promote an effective educational format among students from private and public schools alike.

We look forward to your favorable reply and rest assured that we are in full support of all the programs of the Department of Education. Herewith is our advisory from the DepEd Central Office.

May the blessings of our Lord be upon you, your good office, and the entire student population of Region 4A.

Respectfully yours,
