MEMORANDUM

TO: ALL REGIONAL DIRECTORS 20140620

FROM:
 MARIO A. DERIQUITO
 Undersecretary, Partnerships and External Linkages

SUBJECT: PARTICIPATION OF 2014 MS. TEEN PHILIPPINES CANDIDATES IN RELEVANT DEPED ACTIVITIES IN THEIR RESPECTIVE REGIONS

DATE: June 20, 2014

This is to forward to your office a letter from Ms. Teen Philippines (MTP), one of DepED's partners in promoting selected projects, and in advocating the value of education to our school children, through their candidates who serve as role models in their communities.

MTP has just concluded its 2014 pageant and is expressing its interest to continue helping DepED promote its programs and activities nationwide. Through its 40 candidates from different regions in the country, they are willing to join the Department in our advocacies. Particularly, they believe that their candidates will be helpful in encouraging young students like them to participate in these educational activities that we hold. It is in this regard that they are requesting for a list of activities of your regions and divisions, to which you would want MTP candidates to participate in. These may go from school feeding programs, tree planting activities, among others.

For further clarification on this matter, you may directly coordinate with Ms. Kathy Arceo of Ms. Teen Philippines at (02) 81121.

Thank you very much.

Dear Honorable Secretary Luistro,

Greetings from Miss Teen Philippines, the country's premier nationwide search for a female youth role model that will inspire teens to get ahead in life through education.

After the pageant, Miss Teen Philippines 2014 and the other finalists will participate in activities in line with the pageant's Education for Global Readiness thrust for the benefit of the youth.

As a partner, any of the Miss Teen Philippines 2014 winners can be tapped by the Department of Education as a spokesperson or Ambassador of Goodwill for up to one (1) year to help increase awareness for key and relevant DepEd programs which are aligned with the Miss Teen Philippines' advocacy.

With this, we would like to request for a list of your scheduled programs nationwide for the whole year. Please feel free to call the undersigned at (0917)5152220 or (02) 8112151.

Hoping for your kind consideration.

Sincerely,
