Dear Dr. SAN ANTONIO:

Cavite State University (CvSU) will be hosting a science conference to be participated in by high school students/researchers, research mentors/teachers and principals throughout Region IV. The said activity dubbed as "Regional Science and Technology Challenge: Addressing Food and Water Security" will be held from November 24-27, 2014 at CvSU, Bancod, Indang, Cavite. Scientific talks addressing the theme, quiz competitions in science and mathematics and the students' research poster presentations are the highlights of the conference.

In connection with this, may we seek for your endorsement of this activity and probable co-sponsorship? A brief description of the activity is attached herewith.

This activity promotes science education in the region and the value of research in addressing community needs and for national development.

We are looking forward for your active participation and for a fruitful collaboration with your office. For additional information and queries regarding this activity, kindly contact the Research Center at 46-862-1654.

Sincerely,

DIVINIA C. CHAVEZ, Ph. D.
 University President
