Dear Ma'am / Sir:

Greetings from the Philippine Women's University!

PWU is now moving towards its centenary and continues to offer quality education to students desiring to acquire degrees for personal and professional growth. A PWU diploma is time-tested and affordable. The courses are trimestral so a typical undergraduate degree takes only a little over three years to complete (10 trimesters).

PWU provides the full equivalent of its accredited campus programs ON LINE through its Distance Education Program under the School of Education which offers a Master of Arts in Education major in Educational Management and a MaEd major in Early Childhood Education. The Distance Education programs are supported by an internet based virtual classroom to enable professionals to upgrade their educational qualifications and competencies with maximum flexibility. Only five campus sessions are required every trimester under the Distance Education program (in compliance with CHED regulations).

We are requesting your assistance in disseminating this information to interested professionals in your region to encourage them to pursue graduate studies at PWU. For inquiries and details about PWU's Distance Education MAEd program, please contact: Dr. Johnie D.R. Cuison, distance_education@pwu.edu.ph or call tel. (02) 526-8421 loc. 227/123 (Dean of the School of Education).

Thank you in advance for helping us continue PWU's tradition of providing quality education in the service of the Filipino nation.

Sincerely yours,

Francesca Paz-Pavino
