DATE : 27 March 2015

The SEAMEO-Australia Education Links Award announces the Education Links Award for 2014/2015.

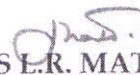

The program aims to showcase education, training and research cooperation activities and the value these have in fostering stronger people-to-people and institutional links and promote the development of effective education partnerships between countries organizations, and communities.

The SEAMEO-Australia Education Links Award is open to all DepEd employees as individuals, groups of people, education institutions or organizations. The contest entry must either be (1) an existing project on education cooperation between Australia and Southeast Asia or a country in Southeast Asia or (2) a proposal on education cooperation between Australia and Southeast Asia or a country in Southeast Asia or within Southeast Asia, that could later be implemented in the Southeast Asian context, possibly in cooperation with SEAMEO.

Applications for the Education Links Award can be downloaded via www.seameo.org/seameo-australia-award. Email applications may be sent via seameo-australia-award@seameo.org and hard copy applications may be sent by post to:
