DR. DIOSDADO M. SAN ANTONIO
Regional Director
DepED - Region IV-A
Karangalan ES, Karangalan Village
Cainta, Rizal

Dear Director San Antonio,

Greetings!

The Early Childhood Care and Development (ECCD) Council, United Children Education Fund (UNICEF), Save the Children, Plan International, Child Fund International, National Association for Special Education and Foundation for the Advanced Professional Development have collaborated to conduct the 2016 Early Childhood Educators Congress with the theme: "Quality Beyond Boundaries" on February 16 – 18, 2016 at Teachers Camp, Baguio City.

This activity aims to 1) widen the reach in disseminating the information on EYA to all ECCD service providers; 2) introduce the Philippine model on Early Childhood Education (ECE); 3) discuss new, global and local trends in ECE including current issues; 4) orient ECCD service providers on the Standards and Guidelines for Granting Permit to Operate (PTO) among the Center-based ECE Programs; and 5) organize the Philippine Association of ECCD Service Providers.

The target participants are the regional/division supervisors' in-charge of Kindergarten Education Program, teachers, principals/school heads, SPED Coordinators and other regional/division coordinators. ECCD service providers from the private sectors or institutions are also invited to attend this activity.

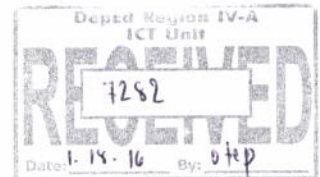

International and local speakers were invited to share their expertise and experiences on early childhood education and intervention programs for children with special needs.

In this connection, may we invite you and your staff involve with early childhood education to participate in this activity. You may check our website: 2016ececongress.wordpress.com or eccdcouncil.gov.ph. You may also contact us through our email address: ececongress@gmail.com or through our office numbers: (02) 571-4615, 571-6590 & 571-6833.

Thank you for your continued support to provide quality eccd programs and services for all the children of our country.

Very truly yours,

TERESITA G. INCIONG, PH.D., D.P.M.
Vice-Chairperson and Executive Director

Nurture the child today!
