The Department of Education (DepEd) is now accepting applications for the Special Program for the Employment of Students (SPES) 2016.

The SPES is a program created under Republic Act 7323, series of 1999, as amended by Republic Act 9547 which seeks to encourage employment during summer, through incentives granted by the Department of Education and the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE).

Qualifications for acceptance as a SPES trainee:

1. Students/out-of-school youth who are at least 18 years old but not more than 25 years old;
2. He/she must be enrolled this school year (in-school) or if not, must have intention to enroll next school year (out-of-school);
3. The combined annual net income of both parents, including his/her own income, if any, must not exceed P143,000;
4. Students must have obtained at least an average passing grade during the last school year/term attended;
5. Applicants must possess office skills (priority will be given to those with computer-related skills).

The following requirements must be accomplished:

1. SPES application form (Please see the attached document);
2. Birth certificate / baptismal certificate (certified true copy / NSO);
3. Income tax returns of both parents. If the parents are non-filers of ITR, (1) an affidavit, certified by the BIR, stating that the annual net income of both parents does not exceed P143,000, or Barangay Certification as to the economic status of applicant's family, must be produced;
