The Department of Science and Technology (DOST) will be having their National Science and Technology Week (NSTW), which will be held simultaneously at the DOST Complex Bicutan, Los Baños Science Communities in Taguig City and Quezon City, and DOST Regional Offices throughout the country on July 25 to 29, 2016. This event will also coincide with the conduct of the National Invention Contest and Exhibits (NICE) on July 27 to 31, 2016 at the SMX Convention Center.

This year's theme for the National Science and Technology Week (NSTW) is "Juan Science, Juan Nation". All stakeholders of Philippine science and technology are invited to celebrate the country's achievements in broad fields of science, engineering, mathematics, and other technical disciplines.

In line with this, the DOST invites primary and secondary-level students to attend this week long event. Please coordinate with your respective DOST Regional Offices or at (02) 837-2939.

Thank you so much.

Karangalan ES, Karangalan Village,
Cainta, Rizal

Dear Dr. San Antonio,

The Department of Science and Technology (DOST) will hold the National Science and Technology Week (NSTW) 2016 to highlight the contribution of science and technology (S&T) to national development. With overall theme "Juan Science. One Nation," NSTW will also give recognition and appreciation to outstanding accomplishments and personalities in S&T.

As part of the celebration, the Metro Manila Science Community composed of DOST attached agencies namely the Philippine Council for Health Research and Development (PCHRD) and the Food and Nutrition Research Institute (FNRI), in partnership with the Metro Manila Health Research and Development Consortium (MMHRDC), will showcase the Department's breakthrough projects, technologies, and services in healthcare through an Open House Exhibit on 25-29 July 2016 at SM Mall of Asia Main Atrium, Pasay City.

Aside from the exhibit, activities such as Natural Products Forum, Nutrition Survey Forum, Health Webinar, Traditional Medicine Forum, Forum on Road Injuries, Forum on Nutrigenomics, Biobank and Lay Forum on Cancers, and Trailblazers in Science: National Scientists Lecture Series, will also be held.

In line with this, may we request your good office to endorse this event? Please be informed that this event has no registration fee. Kindly find the CHED and DepEd Memorandum Circular for your reference.

Should you need more information regarding this event, and to confirm your attendance, please contact Ms. Janine Trinidad at janineetrinidad@gmail.com or you may call at these contact numbers (02)8377534, (02) 837-0031.
