SUBJECT : WORKSHOP ON SCALING UP BEST PRACTICES IN TEA GOVERNANCE
AND RESEARCH

DATE : November 10, 2017

To further sustain the advocacy of Transparent, Ethical, and Accountable (TEA) Governance while strengthening the culture of research in DepEd Region IV-A CALABARZON, the regional office will conduct a live-in workshop titled "Scaling up Best Practices in TEA Governance and Research" on December 18 to 20, 2017 at the First Pacific Leadership Academy, Antipolo City.

The workshop aims for the following:

1. develop research-based leadership framework based on SCOUTERS ROCK of TEA GOVERNANCE;
2. prepare researches pertaining to best practices in TEA GOVERNANCE;
3. strengthen research capacities of Schools Division Superintendents to become more competitive in the international scene.

The target participants of this workshop are the 20 Schools Division Superintendents and the Regional Training Management Team (to be announced on a separate memorandum).

Travel expenses of the participants shall be charged to local funds subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

Immediate dissemination of this memorandum is desired.
