Attention: Dr. LERMA L. FLANDEZ
Schools Division Superintendent
SDO Antipolo City

Dear Director Escobarte:

The Department of Education, through the Bureau of Learner Support Services-School Health Division, is pleased to announce the National Launching of the Expanded School-Based Feeding Program (SBFP) on July 21, 2025. This event aims to showcase and promote the major milestone in the implementation of universal feeding for Kindergarten learners. The initiative underscores the Department's strong commitment to improving learning outcomes through early childhood nutrition.

In this connection, this Office respectfully requests the Regional Office and the Schools Division of Antipolo City to host the activity. Should this request be approved, we shall coordinate closely with your offices to ensure smooth planning and implementation, with the goal of delivering a meaningful and productive event for all learners, parents and stakeholders. To confirm your support, we kindly request the submission of a Letter of Acceptance for the hosting and downloading of funds from SDO Antipolo City by June 13, 2025. Additionally, we seek your assistance with the following:

- provision and preparation of a venue suitable for approximately 645 participants
- procurement of board and lodging for Central and Regional Offices personnel estimated 165 pax;
- procurement of meals (breakfast and lunch) for approximately 645 pax;
- logistical support (e.g. hosting of the event, sound system, stage decoration, registration materials, transportation and other essential equipment); and
- coordination assistance to facilitate local preparations and on-site arrangements.

Additionally, we request the SDO Antipolo City to utilize the downloaded CR operational funds for the showcase feeding activity during the National Launching.

For your reference, please find attached the proposed budgetary estimates and tentative schedule of activities.
