-xxx-

“A. M.I. SEVILLA RESORT

Overall Rating: 93.50

Strengths:

- Location and Availability: The resort received perfect ratings for its location, accessibility, and availability on the required dates.
- Facilities: It has excellent infrastructure, including adequate parking and safety measures suitable for large-scale events.
- Food Service: The food quality, variety, and timely service were all rated positively. The kitchen is fully capable of accommodating a large number of guests consistently.

Minor Concerns:

- There were slight deductions for sanitation and proximity to essential services like restaurants and banking facilities.

B. QUEEN MARGARETTE HOTEL

Overall Rating: 78.55

Strengths:

- Availability: The hotel is available for all three training dates, matching M.I. Sevilla Resort

Limitations:

- Capacity and Functionality: The hotel had lower ratings for parking capacity, sanitation, and proximity to essential services.
- Venue Condition: The conference rooms received low scores for functionality, lighting, and ventilation.
- Food Service: The food service was rated poorly due to a limited menu, slow service, and issues with food temperature.
- Technical Services: The hotel lacks internet and telecommunication services, which are critical for the training's operations.

Conclusion and Recommendation

M.I. Sevilla Resort consistently outperformed Queen Margarette Hotel in nearly every category, particularly in food service, infrastructure, and overall venue quality. While both locations are available, M.I. Sevilla Resort is better suited to host the training, as it offers a more conducive learning environment that aligns with DepEd standards.

Based on this comparative evaluation, we recommend selecting M.I. Sevilla Resort as the official venue for all three training batches. Its high evaluation score, reliable amenities, and comprehensive logistical support will ensure the smooth and successful execution of training."
